Most of these appointments, of which there are in all about sixty, will not be announced until after Congress convenes.

OPPOSED TO RURAL DELIVERY. County Storekeepers Threaten to

Draw Up Remonstrance. The people of St. Louis County are not at all pleased with the announcement that the Post office Department would shortly establish the rural free delivery system among them. The small storekeepers are protesting, and it is probable that a remonstrance will be sent to Washington. John H. C. Ruegge, a general merchant of Black Jack, is the leader of the movement, and J. H. Dietrich of Manchester is a supporter.

The merchants say that the establishment of the system would virtually drive them out of business. By rural free delivery they understand that the carrier need not necessarily confine himself to the delivery of the mails, but that he will also have authority to deliver parcels and general wares in the line of trade.

"This means," said Mr. Ruegge, "that peddlers from St. Louis, who have heretofore had to pay a license for felling their goods in the county, will be exempt. They will be under none of the expenses to which we are subject, and as a result we cannot compete with them. Every one in my vichange.

Doctor H. W. Caster, Postmaster at Clayton, approves of the change. "It will benefit the farmer in an educational way," he said, "and that is the idea of the department in establishing it. Formerly the farmer went to the post office only once a week, and then received but a single weekly paper. Now he will have the same opportunity for daily literature as his brother in the large city."

Tennessee Woman Has Just Discovered Parents' Identity.

Probate Cierk C. William Koenig yester-day received a communication from Attor-ney Louis M. Gross of No. 617 Pine street. The communication states that Miss Dobroth was born in St. Louis in June, 1877; that her mother died when she was a few months old, and she was given by her father to his brother, John Dobroth, in whose family she lived until she was 3 years old. She was then taken by Allen Garner and his wife, Neille, and has lived in that family. Ever since in the belief that she was the Garner's daughter. # APPLIES FOR A RECEIVER.

Texas Farmers' t 'e Mutual Insurance Company 'nvolved.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 1.—J. F. Gerrity has filed application for a receiver for the Texas Farmers' State Mutual Insurance Company, alleging that the concern is insolvent. His petition states the outstanding policies are £,000,000 in value; that no loss claims have recently been paid; that the money collected has been diverted to other uses, and that because of the crop failures many farmers have paid no dues or assessments and that that company owes large sums other than the policies. Ben O. Smith was appointed receiver.

CORN FOR SCHOOL LIBRARY.

Schoolgirls Adopt Unique Scheme to Raise Money.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Pana, Ill., Nov. 1.—The girls of Whitefield School have been soliciting corn the past few days to aid in establishing a school library. They succeeded in getting two large loads, which they marketed, realizing therefrom $15.57$. Other schools in the vicinity will try this unique plan.

Prosperous Southern Farmers.

Prosperous Southers Farmers.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 1.—Reports received here from a number of counties in various parts of the State indicate an unusual promptness among the people in settling their State and county taxes, and this is attributed in a large measure to the fact that the cotton crop is being marketed early, and the conditions generally among the farmers are much more prosperous than those prevailing last year, when crops were exceptionally poor and money scarce in the rural districts.
